

SHANNON ROHRER-PHILLIPS

Shannon is a social entrepreneur, speaker, and producer with three decades of experience doing diversity, equity and inclusion work in healthcare, education, and the business sector.

Shannon has worked with over 20,000 women over the course of her career helping them find their Voice + Visibility. From her early days as a social worker to her most recent impact as Producer of the VVWS, the stories of diverse women and their strength have inspired her dedication to elevating female leadership.

She is the Founder of the Voice + Visibility Women's Summit and the Bridge Builders DEI Training Program & Voice + Visibility Leadership Series. Shannon received her BA from Colgate University and an MSW from Smith College School for Social Work. Shannon lives in Sarasota, FL with her husband Neil, two teenage sons, and a growing tribe of pets. Take a listen to Shannon's TEDx Talk: Failure and Forgiveness in the New South, delivered at University of South Florida Sarasota Manatee on 11.7.19 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P0t0tEm-xgM&t=187s>